

Social Enterprise in Action

- Are you a social enterprise?
- Would you be interested in having additional staff capacity from skilled and motivated individuals?
- Could you consider offering work experience placements to blind and partially sighted people?

If the answers are yes, this is the event for you

A Real Eye Opener

One of the biggest challenges facing people who are blind or partially sighted is overcoming the myths and breaking through the barriers that prevent them from gaining employment. Given the right opportunities and support blind and partially sighted people can add real value to your organisation.

Action for Blind People is inviting social enterprises to come and find out how you can support blind and partially sighted people in the West Midlands; whether it's offering a work experience placement, or making your business more accessible.

5 March 2010

10am – 2pm, (lunch included)

Concept Conference Centre, 58-72 John Bright Street, Birmingham, B1 1BN.

During the day you will get a chance to:

- Find out more about Action's Social Enterprise and Employment Development (SEED) project.
- See what support is available to social enterprises offering work placements.
- Have a look around Concept Conference Centre; a social enterprise where all the kitchen staff are registered blind.
- Ask some questions.
- Enjoy some great food!
